

Evita Cervoni Trembley

Nineteen-year old French-Italian performer born in London, Ontario, began entertaining audiences at age five. She has performed at a variety of events in London, Toronto, and Rome Italy. Evita is an accomplished classical vocalist, pianist, and violinist, who performs in English, French, German and Italian. Evita has also been heavily involved in musical theatre over the years. Her experiences include lead roles as the Red Queen in Alice Through the Looking Glass, Golde in Fiddler On the Roof, and the Mayor in All Shook Up. She has also been a part of professional productions at the Grand Theatre in London, Ontario, where she played a munchkin in her younger years in The Wizard of Oz and even took on the demanding role of Ruth in the Pirates of Penzance. Evita also volunteers her talents for many organizations throughout London including the Dearness Home Christmas Celebration. Evita has even performed for the mayor of Sulmona Italy while he visited Toronto. Most recently Evita was a member of the chorus in Cosi Fan Tutte with the Opera York in Toronto. Currently, Evita is entering her third year at The University of Toronto in the Vocal Performance program and she aspires to perform around the world as a classical performer in the near future. This is Evita's fifth year performing at the Festa Italiana and she is delighted to be back.
